Division I

Design

Stars of the

Silver Screen

Division I – Design: Stars of the Silver Screen

Section A: Marilyn Monroe

Class 1

LET'S MAKE LOVE

This class features an Abstract Creative Design. The selection, treatment and organization of plant materials and other components are chosen in order to contribute toward a design that is non-realistic, non-naturalistic and non-representational. The components are selected solely for their elemental qualities.

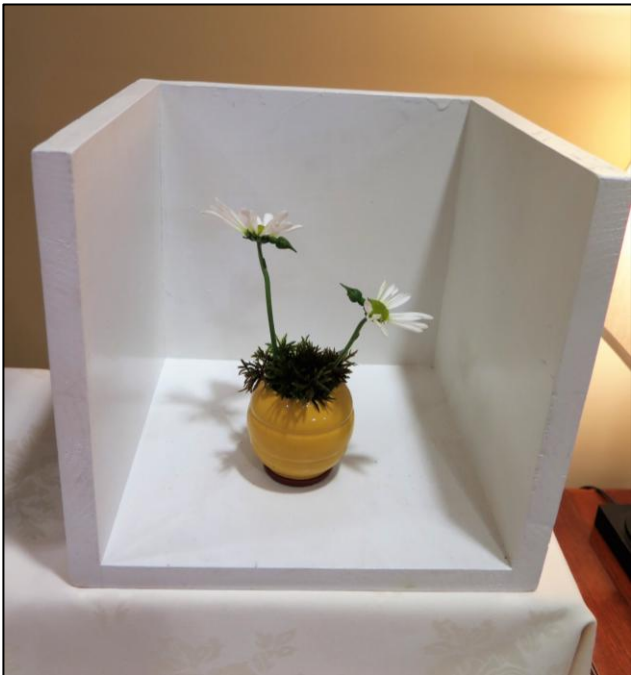

Eligible for Best in Show Award

1st Place Signian McGeary

2nd Place Lucinda Perry

3rd Place Mary Ellen Morgan

HM Sharon Bender

Division I – Design: Stars of the Silver Screen

Section A: Marilyn Monroe

THE MISFITS

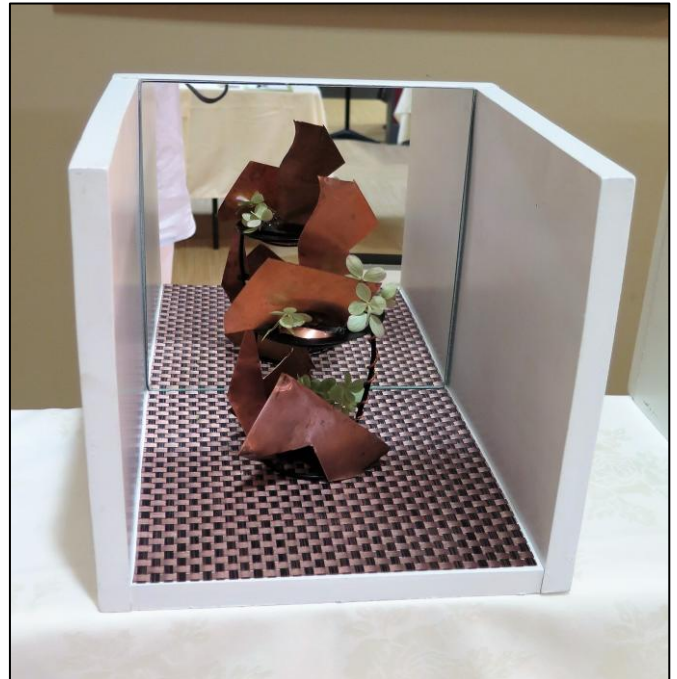

This class features an Angular Design. There is a strong emphasis on angular components. Angles are not limited to one type, and not all components should be angular as contrast is essential to pleasing design. Spatial areas formed by the angles should be organized to enhance depth.

Eligible for Best in Show Award

1st Place Kymrie Zaslow

2nd Place Jessica Fischer

3rd Place Mary Sullivan

HM Tony Poitras

1st Place, Best in Show, CT
Judges Design Award
Sharon Bender

3rd Place Rita Giannotti

Division I – Design: Stars of the Silver Screen

Section B: John Wayne
TRUE GRIT

This class features a Traditional Line Mass Design. Line direction is dominant, yet the design has a moderate amount of plant material to add depth and strength. Contrast of line, form, color and texture play important roles.

Eligible for Best in Show Award and Connecticut Judges Design Award

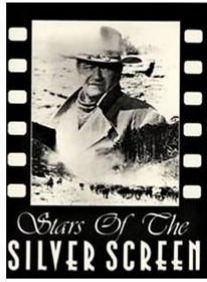

2nd Place Ginni Donovan

HM Patty Wright

Division I – Design: Stars of the Silver Screen

FLYING TIGERS

This class features a Parallel Design. Three or more groupings of plant materials and other optional components are placed in a strong parallel manner. Parallel direction may be vertical, horizontal or diagonal.

Eligible for Best in Show Award and Connecticut Judges Design Award

1st Place Amber Parr

2nd Place Tony Poitras

3rd Place Lawrence Huzi

HM Kymrie Zaslow
